2014 年 10 月 11 日，Tony是Chang的上司，但未直接管理

I had the pleasure of working with Chang during her summer 2014 internship at AIG. She is among the most conscientious and diligent colleagues I've worked with over the course of my career. She takes responsibility for understanding her tasks in entirety, executing beyond expectations, and checking to see that deliverables are satisfactory. In addition, Chang contributes to technical problem–solving, offering excellent approaches to tackling difficult and sometimes ambiguous problems. I recommend her wholeheartedly.
